

CITY HEIGHTS PREP

CHARTER SCHOOL

TITLE IX

Title IX is a federal civil rights law prohibiting discrimination on the basis of sex (including sexual harassment) in our school. It protects male and female students and employees in any educational entity that receives federal funds. In addition, Title IX protects transgender students and students who do not conform to sex stereotypes. State law also prohibits discrimination based on gender (sex), gender expression, gender identity and sexual orientation. The preamble to Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 reads that:

No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal assistance.

City Heights Preparatory Charter School does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, or age, and provides equal access to everyone. The Title IX Coordinator has been designated to handle inquiries or complaints regarding these non-discrimination policies. If you feel as though you have been discriminated against, please contact the Title IX Coordinator or The U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights.
